Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

37+ local coalitions in 25 states engaged in organizing and public advocacy campaigns for workers' rights and economic justice. The mission of the organization is to lead the fight for workers' rights and an economy that benefits all workers. By bringing together labor, community, student, and faith voices at the national and local levels, we are creating innovative solutions to the problems workers face today. Alongside workers across the country, we lead, participate in, and support on-the-ground and online campaigns that advocate for workers' rights. Core issues we organize and advocate around include immigrant rights, corporate accountability, minimum wage, economic recovery, healthcare, and collective bargaining rights for workers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

living. In partnership with a diverse universe of partners and allies we are creating innovative solutions to the socio-economic challenges working families face today. Our core strategies for advancing our collective efforts are three-fold: 1) Lead and incubate campaigns that combine innovative communications strategies, solid research and policy innovations, and grassroots base-building and mobilization; 2) Shape public discourse about workers' rights and the economy to advance collective bargaining as a solution to inequality; and 3) Build and support a network of coalitions that provide a permanent infrastructure for working people to build power, wage strategic campaigns, mobilize, organize and negotiate.

We are also incubating new strategic campaigns aimed at creating on-ramps for worker organizing that address the changing nature of work and its impact on working people. These include our Low Wage Employer Fee and our Just Hours and Scheduling campaigns. Interwoven throughout our work is are racial, class and gender frames that allow us to effectively elevate the profound socio-economic impacts of issues our campaigns seek to address on women, people of color, immigrants, and low wage families and communities."

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Cultivating New Strategic Alliances and Strengthening Existing Ones: We are a national network that is committed to building and nurturing a more powerful, visionary, and connected movement. Through our relationship building activities with other national networks, institutions and global partners, we aim to develop strategic alliances that help us to reach the scale that is necessary to win real changes for working families.
